Sept. 7, 1780.

To the Worthy ELECTORS of the City of WESTMINSTER.

YOUR Vote and Intereſt are moſt earneſtly requeſted for the

Hon. CHARLES JAMES FOX,

At the approaching Election for MEMBERS to repreſent this reſpectable City in Parliament, as a tried and unalterable Friend to the Rights of the People of England, and a determined Enemy to that wretched Syſtem of Government, which has reduced us to our preſent calamitous Situation.

The Election begins This Morning.
